READY, RESPECTFUL, SAFE

4th April 2025

Dear Parents/Carers,

Spring is finally here, and it is so good to hear the children outside enjoying the sunshine. The reception children have loved having their spring chicks in class as they have hatched from eggs and grown so quickly!!

Next week as many of you may have realised is the 50th Anniversary of the school's incarnation as a Catholic Primary school on this site. Staff have planned a wide variety of gorgeous activities for the children over the course of the week. We are starting the week with Mass in church, then the Youth Ministry Team are coming into school for three days to work with the children and finally on Friday 11th April there will be an own clothes party day to finish off all the celebrations!!

Thank you for all photographs and newspaper clippings parents have brought into school to share. It is wonderful to remember all the previous staff and governors who have worked in school over the last 50 years. There have been many special stories to tell and memories to share.

Have a beautiful weekend and enjoy the much-needed sunshine!

Best wishes,

A D Thorpe
