Dear Parents and Carers of children in Year 5,

At the beginning of Lockdown in January, Mrs Thorpe informed you that Father Martin and I, very sadly, had to postpone the remaining First Holy Communion Masses that were due to take place during the January Lockdown. This was in line with Diocesan guidance and instruction as well as Risk Assessments.

Father Martin and I met earlier this week and, unfortunately, this guidance is still in place. This means, therefore, that there can be no First Holy Communion Masses taking place at the current time.

As soon as we are informed that First Holy Communion Masses can resume again within the Diocese, we will write out and inform you immediately to give you all as much notice as possible.

In the meantime, please be assured that we continue to keep all of our children in our prayers at this challenging time.

With our very best wishes,

Mrs C. Meldrum and Father M. Morris
